Cross-cultural ministry life often involves difficulties like:

Separation from loved ones, living on a limited income, learning a new language, adjusting to different environments, facing health hazards & a different healthcare system, assuming heavy personal and group responsibilities, living without conveniences, submitting to the decision of the majority and leadership, working in isolation, holidays away from extended family, new foods, a new multiethnic environment, a different climate, loss of personal space, use of public transportation & additional travel time, more walking, non-conservative worldviews, new taxation systems, potentially less influence if you are a USA citizen, serving under leadership of a different ethnicity, etc.

In seeking missionary service are you fully aware of the sacrifices listed above and prepared to meet them to the best of your ability? *

Yes

No

Other:

Have you served with or applied to any other mission organization? *If so, who/when?

What is the extent of your financial debt, including school loans? *

How are you planning to meet this obligation while serving as a missionary? *

Global Gates Network agrees with the Lausanne Covenant as its statement of faith (<https://www.lausanne.org/content/covenant/lausanne-covenant>); please read the statement of faith at the link provided.

Are you in agreement with the Lausanne Covenant as a statement of faith?

Yes

No

Global Gates Network seeks to reproduce disciples and churches among unreached and least-reached peoples. As a result, we will consistently focus on sharing the gospel with unreached and least-reached peoples in a way that they can understand and we will promote indigenous leadership, ministries, and churches to be birthed out of our organization. Some of our core values include:

- A. Believing and trusting in God to accomplish what He desires (Is 55:10-11, Matt 6:33-34)
- B. Focusing ministry on unreached and least-reached peoples (Rom 15:20, Matt 28:19-20, Matt 24:14, Rev 7:9-10)
- C. Proclaiming the gospel in ways that it can be heard, understood, and received in one's own cultural context (1 Cor 9:19-23)
- D. Doing good in the name of Jesus to all people (Gal 6:9-10)
- E. Starting reproducible churches (Gen 1:28, Matt 16:18, 2 Tim 2:2, Matt 24:14)
- F. Equipping churches and Christians to work among the unreached and least-reached (Eph 4:11-12)
- G. Creating synergy in ministry by partnering with like-minded organizations and people (Eph 4:1-16, 1 Cor 12:12-30, Rom 12:3-8)
- H. Allowing Christ to transform our worldview (Rom 12:1-2, Col 1:13)
- I. Following the teachings of the Bible, so as to bear fruit as followers of Christ (1 Tim 3:16; Gal 5:22-26)
- J. Practicing obedience-based discipleship (Matt 7:21; Luke 6:46)

Are you in agreement with these core values and philosophy of ministry?

Yes

No
